

Southern orange-eyed treefrog

Litoria chloris

Photo : Eva Ford, MRCCC

- Medium frog (to 65mm) with stunning green and yellow contrasting colours and a striking red iris.
- Lives in rainforest trees around water bodies and is mostly seen in breeding congregations during and after heavy rain.
- Eggs are laid in pools in or near forested streams or in flooded grasslands.