

Wallum sedgefrog Litoria olongburensis

- Small frog (to 31mm) which can be brown or bright green.
- Lives in temporary and semi-permanent swamps with acidic waters and thick emergent vegetation in undisturbed areas of the Wallum country.
- Eggs are laid singly at the base of sedge stems during Spring, Summer and Autumn.

Photo: E.Ford, MRCCC

