

Emerald-spotted treefrog

Litoria peronii

- Beautiful grey or brown frog with bright green spots that appear when excited or disturbed.
- Black and yellow mottled areas in the groin area.
- Contracted pupil of the eye is in the sign of a cross.
- Males love to perch in tree branches that overhang permanent and temporary water bodies from where they project their laughing call.

